

ELIJAH COX

VISION & PURPOSE

Elijah, My dearly beloved son. I love your willingness to step into the fire for those in need. Like the prophet Elijah, your willingness has led you through a hard, narrow road that only few have chosen to go through. Only those who have a heart on fire can walk through the fire. And when times get tough, don't let your focus be on the battle, but on the victory. Elijah, allow my wisdom to flow through you. In doing so, you shall discover who I truly am. Let your gentleness and compassion be known to all people. Your unique voice that I've designed fitted solely for you. My beautiful boy, you've now become a man after My own heart. I love you My son.
