

Trenton Twadell

VISION & PURPOSE

Trent, your greatest strengths are your patience and immovability, having courage and grit, and the time you spend thinking and pondering. You have all that you need in me. Listen to the heart I gave you and run your race with endurance. You don't need to go somewhere to serve me, serve me as you are like in Matthew, go, not to somewhere, but as you are. When you show deep compassion and love, when you look past your fear and listen to me, my heart fills with joy.

Trent, you are a man of me and I am proud of you for it. You are determined, you will not sway easy, depend on me and you will withstand anything. A tall tree sways in the wind but does not fall because of its roots. I did not call you to be stoic, but a man for me. I want you to live for me and in me you will find it, the greatest adventure.

It's not what you do but who you are. Stop trying to hide from me and go live for me, and enjoy life in its abundance, because I am your life. I gave you the ability to continue to serve me even when life gets hard, because it will. To let my light shine through you and to be an example so that I can show myself through you, have faith, I will.
